THE EAR

SOMEBODY: CLOSE THE LETELIER SCENE . . . George Bush, still pondered as a Maybe for Reagan's Veep, gets a teeny setback in "Assassination on Embassy Row," Ear hears. Saul Landau and John Dinges' new this-month tome on the Letelier murder says George knew perfectly well that the Chilean Secret Police had sent a team to DC on a Covert Mission, but sat on the info. Worse, he let "CIA sources" be lavishly quoted, saying the Chilean government had nothing to do with the September '76 hit.
